Bedlam

Oh, the wonders of university housing. Whether on-campus or off, dorm life is an accomplishment for all who manage to survive the paper thin walls, 2 a.m. fire drills and wrestling in the halls.

Of course, it isn't all that bad. Dorm living provides the opportunity to become part of a community of men or women (or both!) who live and share with each other. For many students, university housing is the first venture out of the nest, and the experience, believe it or not, can be a happy one.

"Turn that thing down!"

"I have a problem; can we talk?"

"I have to do a load of wash."
"My parents are coming up!"

"Let's order out from Pizza House!"
"Who has a hot pot I can borrow?"

"Who else has the munchies?"
"Let's wrestle!"

"Where are my glasses?"
"The dryer just ate my last 35c!"

"I have to read 100 pages by tomorrow!"

"What time's the hall meeting?"

"I pressed 250 today!"
"Eight ball in the corner pocket"

"Let's flip a frisbee out back."

"Is the mail out yet?"

I'm on duty tonight
ROAD TRIP!!!

Survival of the Fittest

Off-campus life is just as full of fun as the dorms. Well, maybe a little more! It's nice to have a house or apartment to go home to after a rough day. And the weekends need I say more?

Though you may get tired of macaroni and cheese, waiting for the bathroom and battling for the dining room study table, you find comfort in knowing you have some companions to share with, care for and party with!

"Let's watch 'M•A•S•H' "
"Did you taste her soup? Yuk!"

"Let's listen to some Pink Floyd."

"Do you wanna dance?"

"I lost my house key!"

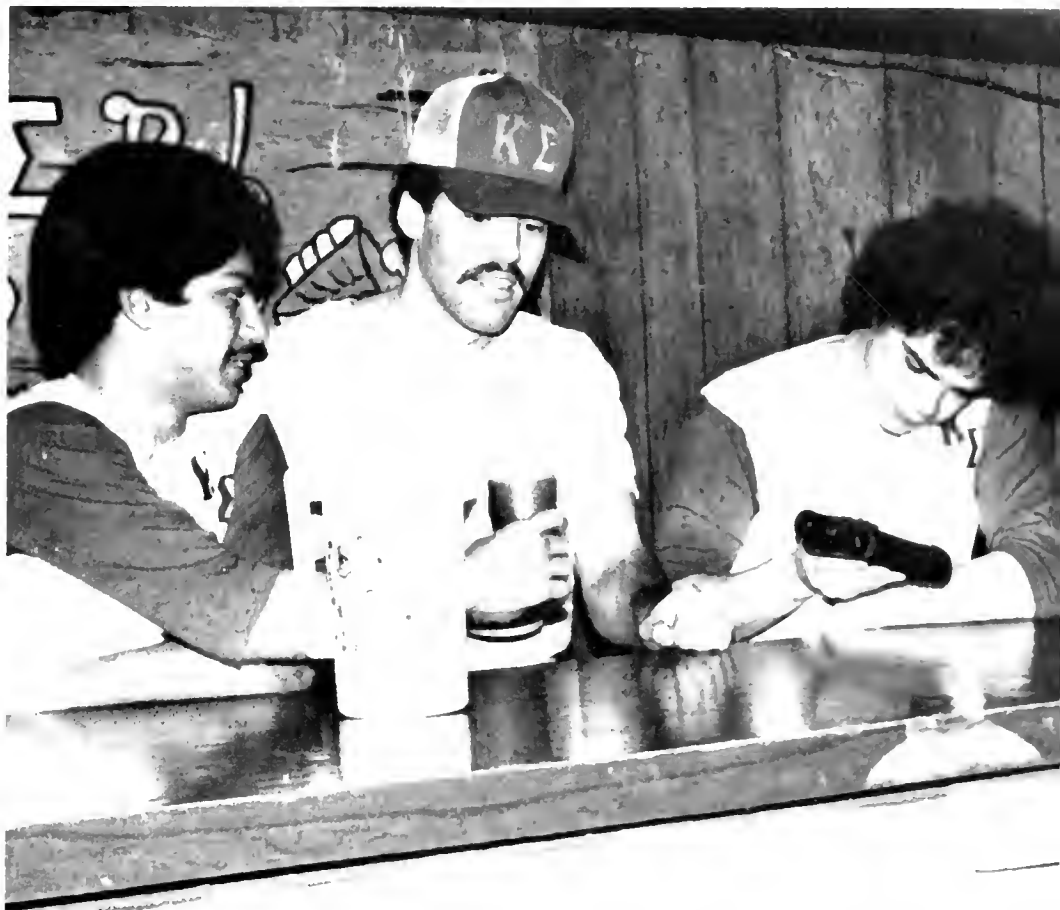

"When's the party start?"

Ex-GDI's

Fraternal brotherhood and sisterhood at its best! IUP boasts some of the best fraternities and sororities around

To be a Greek is to someone special. You find out there is more to college life than studying when you go Greek. Friendships grow, laughter and good times are plentiful, and those sometimes hazardous parties and mixers become an integral part of your college years.

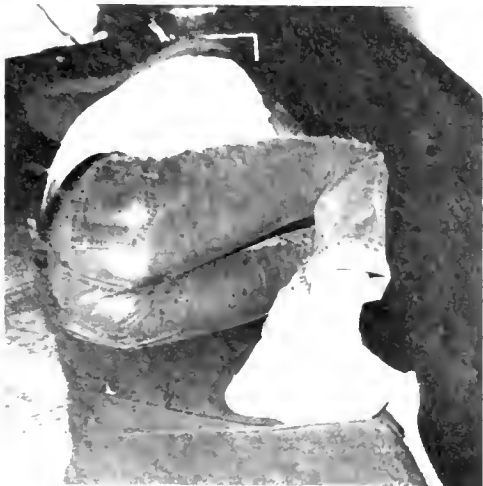

"Who's working the door?"
"Tap a keg!"

"Nap time!"

"Who took my clothes?"

"Wanna buy a cookie?"

"This hand stinks!"

Branching Out

The mere existence of the Kittanning and Punxsutawney branch campuses lends a certain amount of prestige to IUP. However, they are often neglected by IUP's main campus. They have to put up with long bus rides to main campus for access to the bookstore. In addition, they get little compensation for their activity fee.

Yet, in spite of these disadvantages, the branch campuses provide a pleasant and memorable transition to main campus for many of us.

"Except the charges? Operator, you gotta be kiddin'."
"Let's go to Winky's!"

"Hey, our letters made the PENN!"
"Double dribble, idiot!"

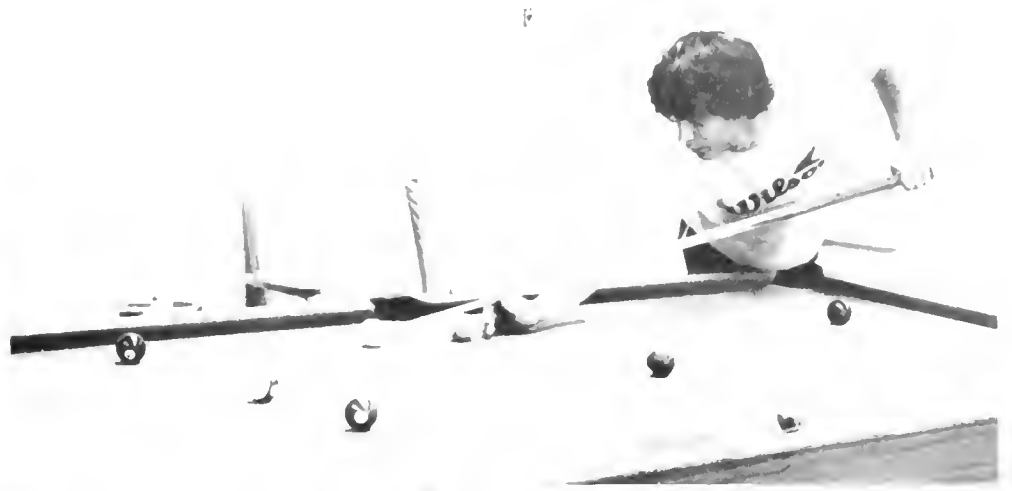

"Can we have cats in the dorm?"
"Let's raid Boyer tonight"

"And then what did he do?"

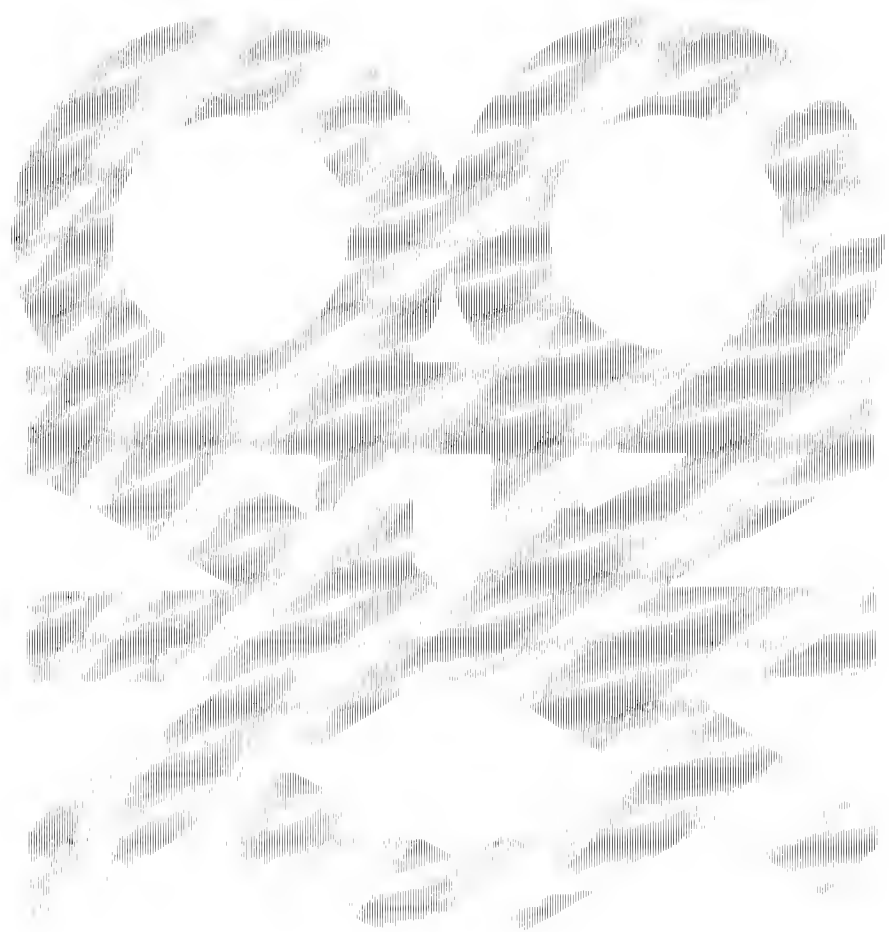

"It's about time you took a shower!"

"I'm a wild and crazy guy."
"SCRATCH."

Presidential Pacesetter

Dr. John E. Worthen, in his second year as IUP's president, continued his sincere efforts to eliminate our deficit. When he took office in October of 1979, Dr. Worthen placed balancing the budget as one of his top priorities. Another of his main goals was to make IUP a leading university. His main promotional tools were IUP's size and excellent academic programs. IUP is larger than the other State — funded colleges in Pennsylvania and it is the only university which is funded by the State.

Our president also found time to participate in many activities with the students and faculty. This year he and his family participated in the annual tree lighting ceremony. His continual and avid support of various athletic programs has shown us his willingness and eagerness to promote campus spirit.

Dr. Worthen, the former Vice-President of Student Affairs at the University of Delaware, came to IUP in 1979. In his short term as president, Dr. Worthen has made himself well-known throughout our campus. His active nature and proud support of IUP has gained him the respect and admiration of the administration, faculty members, and the student body.

Frustration Unlimited

Registration is always a battle in itself. One of the worst parts is the worried anticipation which heightens as you wait, and wait, and wait.

First you have to wait outside, sometimes in the hot sun, sometimes in the snow, and sometimes in the rain. Then you wait on the bleachers. And of course you always have to wait in the lines which are ever-present on campus.

Finally you make it to the computer, desperately trying to work out a schedule. Just when you think you are safely through, a monotone voice destroys all hopes and dreams of a perfect schedule with another closed class.

After you schedule, reschedule, and schedule again, the computer reluctantly passes you through its golden gates, releasing you from that arena of confusion. Classes look so precious after fighting so hard for them, yet by Monday you will probably find yourself at the end of another long line as period begins.

Free Sailing

This fall the IUP Outdoor Club helped students capture the last bit of summer at Yellow Creek State Park. At their annual extravaganza, there was plenty of warm sun and free use of catamarans, sailboats and canoes.

Those who didn't care to venture onto the water could simply spread out on the lake bank, listen to the band, and enjoy fine food.

The day introduced students to the facilities available to them from IUP and the Outdoor Club.

The Wild West Comes to IUP

"Don't Rain on My Parade," sang Streisand in Funny Girl — IUP sang along homecoming weekend. Despite the wet weather, the homecoming traditions continued as usual.

Naturally, the IUP Indians, both alumni and students, felt right at home with the "Wild West" theme. The pioneering parade originally consisted of 14 floats, 17 bands and 6 majorette groups. Though the rainy weather decreased the original size of the parade, the IUP Indians' spirit remained high.

Catching the western spirit in song was the IUP Marching Band. They played favorites, such as theme songs from "F-Troop" and "The Lone Ranger," and kept peace on the warpath with "Ten Little Indians."

The parade floats depicted scenes from the "Wild West," ranging from the Gold Rush to the building of the Continental Railroad. The top eight floats, as determined by a panel of judges, were awarded cash prizes. Prizes were awarded to the following fraternities and sororities:

1st place — Kappa Delta Rho / Alpha Phi,
2nd place — Lambda Chi Alpha / Sigma Sigma Sigma.

IUP royalty of both past and present also made an appearance in the parade. In addition to the 1980 Homecoming Court, IUP hosted Miss Ohio 1981, Miss IUP 1980, IUP Homecoming Queen 1978 and Miss Pennsylvania 1972, all graduates of IUP.

IUP will always look good at homecoming, even in the rain. After all, isn't that how we know it best?

. . . With a Range of Activities

Homecoming has always been based more on tradition than anything else. There were always countless parties, long reminiscences with old friends, a spirited football game and, of course, the crowning of a queen.

This year IUP changed parts of its tradition by enlarging the homecoming court. They moved one step ahead of the ERA by crowning both a homecoming queen, and king.

Donna Reaves, a senior Health and Physical Education major from Sussex, NJ, was a member of the varsity track team and Student of the Creative Arts. Her attendants were Connie Shaffer, Patti Jo Brockelman and Melinda Barber.

Gaining the distinction of becoming the first IUP Homecoming King was Don Thomas, a junior Criminology major from Hokendaqua, PA. Phi Kappa Psi fraternity, of which Thomas was an active member, nominated him to run for the title.

Unfortunately, the "Wild West" Indians couldn't fight off the Edinboro Scots, just losing the football game 11-9.

Despite this loss and the damp dreary weather, homecoming weekend showed how the west was won — with loyalty to a common bond that will always bring us back home to IUP.

Drummin' Up Spirit

With twirling flags and complex formations, the IUP Marching Band brought school spirit to life with song.

Under the direction of Dr. Charles Casavant, football halftimes became musical festivals as the 180-member band performed.

The band shared its musical talents in several exhibition performances. They included concerts at Catasauqua, PA, Coventry, OH, Munhall, PA, and Hershey, PA.

The band officers and section leaders were as follows: piccolo section — James Pish; clarinet section — Janice Ferrari; saxophone section — Theodore Zitelli and Michele Fisel; mellophone section — Joan McGowan; trumpet section — Hary Ziek; Nevin Saylor and John Shaw; trombone section — Rob Spence; tuba euphonium section — Greg Nicoloff; percussion section — Harold DeLozier; silks — Cristal Swartzbaugh and Elizabeth Saul; twirlers — Patti Reynolds; rifles — Pam McKamish; drum majors — Gerald Black, Tama Werfel, Jay V. Butterfield and Robert Read (executive); commanding officers — Theodore Zitelli, Kurt Schneiderhan and Rob Spence.

Musical Caffeine

Everyone needed a break by Friday or Saturday evening, so the Coffeehouses, sponsored by the Activities Board, provided one.

Crowded into the Student Union New Lounge, students enjoyed listening to performers such as Jim Ballard, Bill Allison, The Britton Sisters, Burton and Tapper, and Joel Marcus

Such a variety of singers presented musical entertainment for many different tastes. Best of all, it was always free!

Jammin' with Maynard

The jazz musician, Maynard Ferguson, greeted the IUP audience on Friday night, October 24, 1980 with open arms

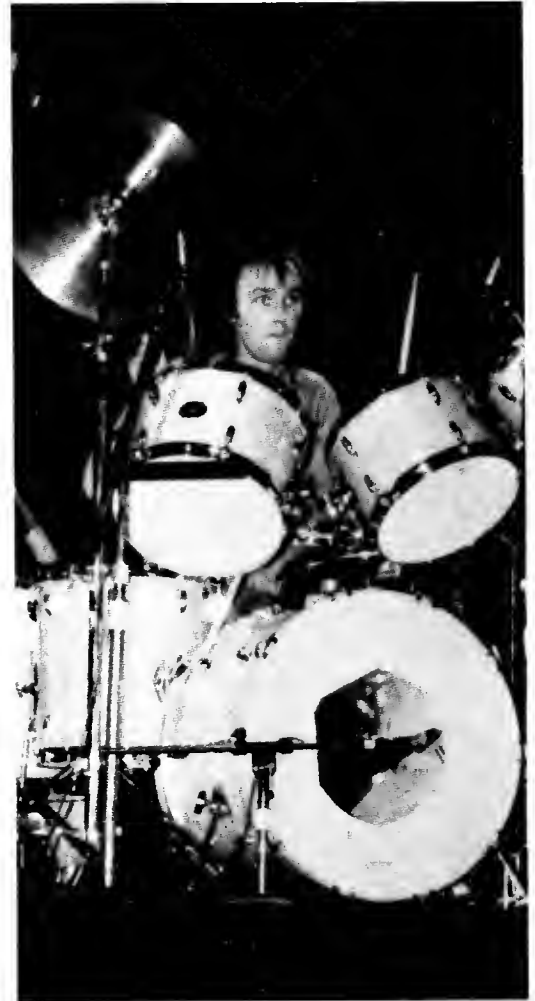

His performance ranged from medleys to solos. His music included "Rocky," "MacArthur Park," "Hey Jude" and "Cameleon"

Most of the audience left feeling that they had attended a "superior" concert.

Live With Poco . . .

Poco appeared in concert September 24, 1980 in Fisher Auditorium. "Heart of the Night" and "Crazy Love" stood out as the strong points of the concert.

Despite these popular tunes, much of the Poco performance was disappointing. However, the opening act, John Hall, proved to be top quality entertainment. Hall compensated for Poco's performance by belting out some well known hits of his own. "Still the One," a tune from his Orleans days, was very well received. After several curtain calls, Hall left the stage amidst a round of applause.

Pittsburgh Rock

The Iron City Houserockers performed in concert along with Norm Nardini and the Tigers on October 28. The Iron City Houserockers worked hard on stage and were enjoyed by the large crowd that filled Fisher Auditorium

Songs that brought good response were ones such as "Pumping Iron," their hit single "Don't Let Them Push You Around," "I'm Not Dead Yet," "I Can Still Rock and Roll," "Have a Good Time (But Get Out Alive)," and cover tune "Pretty Women." The group performed a ten-minute medley encore of "Shout Johnny B.

Rockin' Southern Style

Molly Hatchet performed in concert at Memorial Field House on Saturday night, March 28. The band consisted of vocalist Jimmy Farrar, three guitarists, a drummer and a bassist

The southern rock group presented an exciting show with such songs as "Bounty Hunter," "Boogie No More," "Beatin' the Odds" and "Gator Country." The group displayed an evening of heavy rock 'n roll. Supporting Molly Hatchet was the band Skywire

Dynamic Duo

Daryl Hall and John Oates performed in front of a near capacity crowd at Memorial Field House, Sunday, May 3. The duo presented an energetic show.

Hall and Oates played various past and current hits along with three encores which made their total playing time one hour and twenty minutes. Their concert included such hits as "Kiss On My List," "She's Gone," "Rich Girl," "Wait For Me" and "You've Lost That Loving Feeling."

European Folk

The Duquesne University Tumbitzans displayed an array of talents Friday night, February 8, in Fisher Auditorium. The "Tammies" took the audience through such countries as Greece, Bulgaria and Croatia.

Along with their stunning acrobatic dancing and flawless folk singing, the "Tammies" displayed instrumental talent when they played a variety of instruments including the accordion, clarinet and violin.

East Meets West

The National Chinese Opera performed October 21 in Fisher Auditorium. The sixty-five Taiwanese actors and actresses of the National Chinese Opera Troupe displayed an array of spectacular costumes and acrobatic talents.

The show started dramatically with three clashes from a gong and ended with a standing ovation during curtain call.

Dragtime Ballet

Les Ballets Trockadero de Monte Carlo entertained IUP with dances of spirit and hilarity October 29 in Fisher Auditorium. The all-male troupe of ballerinas parodied such classics as Swan Lake, Act II and Don Quixote.

These slapstick dancers managed to show all the laughable aspects of ballet with their expert mastery of dance skills.

Dancin' Up a Storm

The Arve Connection Dance Company displayed a unique exhibition of skill on November 8. Choreographer Richard Arve formed the company, in 1977. The company consisted of 10 professional members of which only three were men.

The dancers performed continuous movements of modern dance to songs such as: "Class," "Send in the Clowns," "Naja," "Currents," and "Primate."

Soliloquist

Pat Carroll presented her one-character play, Gertrude Stein Gertrude Stein Gertrude Stein. November 23 to a crowded Fisher Auditorium audience.

This Marty Martin play was set on the eve of Stein's eviction from her famous studio at 27 Rue de Fleures, which she shared with her friend Alice B. Toklas. It was a rainy day and Alice was asleep upstairs as Gertrude reminisced about her life; a life which became believably real through Carroll's captivating performance.

A Kick From Broadway

The touring company of Broadway's hit A Chorus Line, dazzled a capacity crowd January 27 in Fisher Auditorium with music and dance.

A Chorus Line, choreographed and directed by Michael Bennett, was Broadway's longest running musical and winner of nine Tony Awards.

The musical centered on the auditions of 17 dancers for eight chorus positions in a new show. As the director watched and questioned them, these 17 danced, sang and told their own stories. The combined style and perfection of each dancer created a breathtaking performance, one which experts have called a major development of the American musical theatre.

NOTE: These photos are of the Broadway company and not of the touring company

Body Sculpture

The performance of the First Pilobolus Theatre March 3 in F. Sherwin Colburn Hall was hard to define. Did this seven-member troupe do dance, gymnastics, or mime?

Pilobolus' appeal and fascination came from their ability to interlock their bodies into countless formations. Their interlocking movements created structures on stage that were closer to sculpture than dance.

Jazz It Up

The Smithsonian Jazz Repertory Ensemble performed in Fisher Auditorium April 8, keeping a peppy tempo all evening. The group traced the development of jazz from the '20s through the '40s.

Only six months old at the time of their presentation at IUP, the group made plans to return here in future years.

Oh Tannenbaum

Thursday night, December 4, a variety of students, faculty and friends participated in the annual lighting of IUF's Christmas Tree.

The large tree, located in front of Sutton Hall, made the campus glow with the Christmas spirit. Following the ceremony more holiday cheer was shared at a cookie and hot chocolate reception in the Blue Room.

Geronimo

The sky over Jimmy Stewart Airport was spotted with figures of green as the IUP ROTC cadets make their parachuting jumps. These Military Science II, III and IV students floated from an altitude of 1200 feet.

All the jumpers had gone to airborne training at Fort Benning, Georgia. While in training they received 130 hours of physical and mental training and made at least five parachute jumps from heights of 1250 feet to 2500 feet. There was a safe landing for all.

Dance the Night Away

The IUP Concert Dance Club produced two shows under the direction of faculty advisor S. Jane Dakak and the four-member council of Missy Lamb, Kindy Houk, Mary Lou Bartash and Kate Kale.

Action filled the stage November 20 through November 23 as the group presented its fall show. The spring show was presented May 7 through May 10, again dazzling the audience with song and dance. All aspects of the shows were supervised by students.

Up, Up, and Away

The I-Uppers performed April 4 and 5 in Fisher Auditorium. They opened their show with "Everybody Rejoice," from the Broadway musical The Wiz.

The most popular song with the audience was "The Book Report" in which students acted out kindergarten children writing a report on Peter Rabbit. The I-Uppers ended their concert singing their theme song "United We Stand."

We Are Family

Sigma Chi Derby Days ran from March 29 to April 4. This fund-raising project benefited Camp Orenda—a camp for the physically and mentally handicapped of Indiana County.

Eleven of the sororities of IUP participated in games and fund-raisers for the project. The week was highlighted Saturday, April 4, at Keith Field where the sororities' final variety of games took place.

Summer Insanity

May Madness Weekend, May 8, 9, and 10 looked very disappointing at first. It started with the cancellation of Friday night's concert with Point Blank and the Silencers at Flagstone Theater. Then the May Madness Run was cancelled due to the lack of participants. It looked like rain would also ruin Saturday's Farm Day, which was the focal point of the weekend. Conditions improved however, and Farm Day turned out to be a day full of sun, music and fun.

Hundreds of IUP students participated in a day of Frisbee throwing, pie eating, three-legged racing and egg tossing. The atmosphere was completed with the sound of country songs by the Corbin-Hanner Band. May Madness Weekend ended on Sunday with a concert by folk-singer Richie Havens.

In 1912 the first regular yearbook was produced at Indiana; it was called the INSTANO (INDiana STATE NORMAL School). This class annual was renamed the Oak in 1928 when Indiana became a state teachers college. The staff has worked hard this year to create an interesting and accurate record of the years' people, places, and programs. Members say that the main requirement for inclusion is a prerequisite of Basis Insanity 101.

Whatta' buncha' nuts II . . .

The Penn, the IUP student newspaper published tri-weekly at 108 Pratt Hall, celebrated its 50th year during 1980. Although it was established as a campus newspaper in 1928, it was later reorganized and Vol. 1, No. 1 of the present Penn was published on September 12, 1930. This year they co-sponsored the Spring Sweepstakes with the Downtown Indiana Businessman's Association, began a resumé service for students which offers a lower rate for typeset printing, and sent representative to a convention in Dallas, Texas for college newspaper business managers.

The group responsible for most of the cultural and recreational activities on campus is the Activities Board. It is funded by the Student Cooperative Association and is made up of seven committees, including Arts and Films, Dances and TGIF Concerts, and Recreation. The following are some of the many events organized by the group: Farm Day, Bluegrass Night at the Lodge, May Madness weekend, Coffeehouses, films, bus trips to Pittsburgh concerts, and also a spring bus trip to Daytona.

The Nu Omicron Chapter of Alpha Psi Omega was reinstated as an active chapter in January 1979. It is an honorary society dedicated to the promotion and encouragement of all facets of theater arts. Their motto is fellowship and service and the group strives to create interest in dramatics and theater. Members contributed their talents in various productions of Theater-by-the-Grove's 1980-81 season.

Computer Science Club

The Computer Science Club of IUP was organized in 1976 to bring together computer science majors and business. This year they accomplished this by touring several computer installations and businesses, and by inviting speakers to visit the campus to talk on matters of concern to computer science students. Also, they had a booth at the Activities Fair in the fall and held picnics as social events for their members. As a means of tutoring fellow students, the club sponsored help sessions throughout the year.

The Economics Club was formed in the early 1970s to promote the interest and understanding of economics among its members and to participate in projects beneficial to both the university and the community. While some groups complain of apathy, this club boasts of having completed its most active year ever. In the fall, members traveled to New York City on a four-day tour which included Wall Street. The group sponsored various speakers throughout the year, made possible by several fund-raising events that they held. Members also competed among themselves in an investment game.

While a club for home economics students has been organized at IUP since the 1940s, the group eventually became affiliated as a student chapter of the American Home Economics Association. The members strive for professionalism in all areas involving human growth and development. This year they have been involved in a number of community service projects including the Kiwanis Pancake Day and Red Cross Blood Drives. They participated in the Activities Fair and Christmas Fair, as well as in various fundraisers for their trip to the state conference.

Hospitality Management Club

The Hospitality Management Club was organized to allow students exposure to opportunities in the hospitality industry. The group held a Career Day on March 31, 1981, that featured the Vice-President of the National Restaurant Association as the key speaker. Members attended the Western Pennsylvania Restaurant Show in Monroeville and toured the Pittsburgh Hilton on April 7. At their monthly meetings there were speakers, which provided an added experience outside the classroom. The group receives much support from the food and nutrition department faculty.

Kappa Omicron Phi was founded at Northwest Missouri State Teachers College at Maryville, Missouri, on December 11, 1922. The Tau Chapter at IUP was organized in 1940. The group's purpose is to further the best interest of home economics by recognizing and encouraging scholastic excellence, developing leadership abilities, fostering professional activities and interests and promoting fellowship among faculty and students of the profession. They receive members and hold initiation ceremonies during every spring semester. The group held a Founder's Banquet in December, and is nationally active.

This student chapter of the Pennsylvania School Food Service Association, and the national organization of the same name, has many goals. These include developing and promoting a professional attitude in students, increasing their knowledge of the need for nutritionally adequate and educationally sound food service, and introducing them to many facets of the food industry preparing them for employment. Among its other activities, the group organized a weight-loss program for sixth floor Wallace Hall and presented a discussion of "Cooking for One" at the Six O'clock Series during the fall semester.

Affiliated with the Pennsylvania Student Dietetic Association, this group is also a junior member of the American Dietetic Association. They have been organized at IUP approximately four years for purposes of informing and educating the community on the importance of good nutrition for health and well-being. Consisting of six committees, members organized "road shows" where they gave presentations and distributed pamphlets to community groups in Indiana County. They participated in the Health Fair and Activities Fair. They held fruit and cheese sales during March which was National Nutrition Month.

Interfraternity Council

Initially, the Interfraternity Council's purpose was to act as a governing body of male Greek organizations at IUP. They met to hear disputes between member groups and to discuss common problems and interests. While they continue to perform these roles, they also have become involved in fostering positive relationships between the community and the university and in supervising rush and pledge activities. In addition, they organized several programs, some with the Panhellenic Council, in which member groups participated.

Panhellenic Council

The Panhellenic Council is the governing body of the female Greek organizations on campus. Like the Interfraternity Council, the body is made up of representatives from every member group. They organized the candle-passing ceremony at the Christmas Tree Lighting event in Flagstone and sponsored the Christmas Door-Decorating Contest for sorority suites. The group also participated with the Interfraternity Council on Clean-up Days along fraternity row. There is also a Junior Panhellenic Council which is a group of newly-initiated females who deal with their own special concerns.

Founded as a national fraternity in 1904, the Alpha Sigma Chapter of Alpha Gamma Delta joined the IUP campus in 1953. This year the sisters hosted the first annual Mr. IUP Contest and proudly raised over $1000.00 for the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation. Alpha Gamma Delta placed third in the Sigma Chi Derby Days and won the award for being most original. They were also runner-up for the Best Overall Award in Greek Sing. The mascot of Alpha Gamma Delta is the squirrel symbolizing "the spirit that never dies, the spirit of energetic alertness and progress."

The original chapter of Alpha Omicron Pi was formed at Barnard College, January 2, 1897. IUP's Gamma Beta Chapter was organized on February 26, 1966, making this year their 15th anniversary. Their purpose is helping the community while providing an organization for fellowship of women sharing a common bond: love. Their special fund-raiser, a 48-hour Rock-a-thon for the Arthritis Foundation, was a great success. Members also participated in Greek Week activities, in the Dance-a-thon, and helped Phi Kappa Psi in collecting donations for Open Door of Indiana.

Alpha Phi was founded at Syracuse University in 1872, with IUP's Delta Phi Chapter being formed in 1965. Their goal is to reach the highest ideals of womanhood, scholarship, and service. The group's accomplishments for the year include placing first in the Homecoming Parade float competition, receiving the Best Vocal Award in Greek Sing, competing as finalists in the intramural volleyball playoffs, and placing third in Theta Xi's Broomball Contest. In February, members sponsored the King of Hearts Contest which benefited the American Heart Association.

The national founding of Alpha Sigma Tau took place on November 4, 1899, at Michigan State Teachers College, Ypsilanti, Michigan. The Delta Chapter at IUP was first begun on September 25, 1916, later disbanded, then reorganized in September, 1928. This year, the group raised funds for Pine Mountain Settlement School in Kentucky and for the Special Olympics, prepared Easter baskets for ARIN Intermediate Center, and co-sponsored the Pancake-Eating Contest with Phi Sigma Kappa. Members were also big winners again in Derby Days, receiving first place in the fund-raising, spirit, and best overall categories.

Lombard College in Illinois was the location of the national founding of Alpha Xi Delta on April 17, 1893. The local chapter, Delta Nu, was formed in 1963. Their philanthropy is the American Lung Association, but they also supported the Day-Care Center at Ackerman Hall and the Love Basket program of Indiana. The group participated in Greek Sing and held a tea in Sutton's Blue Room for members. While their purpose is to educate and cultivate an understanding of being a person, members feel their group is unique because all are willing to accept people as they are.

As the newest local chapter of Delta Gamma, the Epsilon Eta Chapter at IUP was installed on March 21, 1981. A record number of pledges — 65 girls — were initiated on this date. Even though newly-organized, the group was able to sponsor the Beautiful Eyes Contest, which benefited the Indiana County Federation for the Blind, and participated in Phi Kappa Psi's Basketball Marathon. Delta Gamma was founded in 1873 at the Louis School, Oxford, Mississippi as a social organization fostering the ideals of friendship and the promotion of scholarship.

Kappa Sigma

The national founding of Phi Kappa Theta took place concurrently at Brown and Lehigh Universities in 1889. The Kappa Theta Chapter was established at IUP in 1970 with the following goals: fraternal (duty to man), intellectual (duty to self and parents), social (duty to society), and spiritual (duty to God). The group raised funds to benefit handicapped young adults and hosted the Regional Leadership Conference in February. They also participated in various social and intramural activities. Members say anyone can feel at home with this fraternity since they do not require conformity.

Sigma Tau Gamma

Sigma Tau Gamma lists its objectives as value, learning, leadership, excellence, benefit and integrity. Originally founded in June 1920 at Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, Missouri, the fraternity established the local chapter in November 1930. This year the brothers rented themselves out to perform services to raise funds for cystic fibrosis. Another unique feature of the group is its annual "White Rose" trip which is named for the group's symbolic flower and involves a week-long retreat.

Tau Kappa Epsilon, headquartered nationally at Indianapolis, Indiana works with the purpose of promoting brotherhood. Members rang bells for the Salvation Army for the second consecutive year in December, solicited funds for UNICEF in October, and assisted in blood drives for the American Red Cross.

Zeta Tau Alpha

Zeta Tau Alpha, founded in 1898 at Longwood College, Faimville, Virginia celebrated its local chapter's 30th anniversary, having been established at IUP on May 12, 1951. The group devoted itself to the philanthropy of the Association for Retarded Citizens and supported the Special Olympics. At province Zeta Days, held in Lock Haven, the IUP chapter won an award for maintaining its quoto on campus, and at Indiana they took first place in Sigma Chi Derby Days, placing second overall in Derby Days. The group also took time out to make Christmas ornaments to trim the Christmas tree at Ebensburg State Hospital.

Campus 4-H is the continuation of 4-H after high school. Its purpose is to promote, exercise, maintain, and increase interest in 4-H, local through international. This program provides IUP students with opportunities for personal self-improvement through interaction with others. The IUP Campus 4-H club enables students to build and continue their potential in leadership and citizenship abilities. Members assist the local 4-H clubs in recreational and educational activities. Club members have the opportunity to participate in state, regional, and national collegiate 4-H projects and activities.

The Players of IUP is a social club operated on a business level which is geared to a family kinship within the group and a free voice among its members. The club begins each semester with a party and holds other parties and fundraisers throughout the year. This group helped in the community by giving dinners to a needy family at Thanksgiving and Christmas. They also supported the Miss Black IUP contest in both the financial and staging processes.

I-Uppers

The I-Uppers, a 14-year-old musical group, is a non-departmental group which performs a variety of musical styles and acts as a public relations group for IUP. Because participants are of diverse backgrounds, rather than being bound by departmental ties, members develop close friendships. The I-Uppers staged their annual spring concert April 3-4, 1981 in Fisher Auditorium.

This social club for Jewish students on campus was originally known as "Hillel" and became the Jewish Student League in the late 1970s. The group's 20 members raised funds by presenting the movie "The Deerhunter," held informal social functions, cooperated with the history department to present "Reflections on the Holocaust," and assisted with functions at the Beth-Israel Synagogue in Indiana.

The IUP Concert Dance Club began its 13th year of existence with approximately 190 members. This is a startling growth from its 15-20 original members in 1967. The concert dancers hold weekly classes for three skill levels: beginners, intermediates, and advanced. The group presents a dance performance at the end of each fall and spring semester. The Zink Hall Dance Theatre houses all the concert dance activities and provides a professional atmosphere in which students can work. S. Jane Dakak, the advisor, directs the group.

Equestrian Club

The Equestrian Club was established in August 1965 for the purpose of providing enjoyment for those who wish to ride in either English or Western riding styles. The club provides riding lessons for interested students. The group enjoys such activities as overnight rides, all-day rides, camping trips, and hayrides.

This athletic club was founded for men in the fall of 1976 and for women in the fall of 1979 to promote interest and participation of IUP students in the intramural sports program. Besides competing in all intramural sports events, the Hustlers also took part in the Anything Goes Contest and sponsored their annual foosball tournament.

Equestrian Team

The IUP Equestrian Team was started in 1975 and became a member of Region V of the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association founded in 1967 and headquartered in New York. The IUP chapter was elected President College by the other 22 colleges in the region for the 1979-1981 term and was awarded the 1980 Ralph Gills Memorial Trophy for sportsmanship. IUP ranked fifth overall in the 1979-80 Region V competition. For the 1980-81 season, IUP ranked among the top six schools. The team is a competitive riding team. Beginning through advanced riders compete in their respective levels, matching riders of the same skill levels together.

The Gashouse Gang is an athletic club which was founded in September 1979. Among its intramural accomplishments for the year are second place in golf, first place in cross country, second place in wrestling, second place in foul throw, second place in racquetball, and second place in swimming, all of which contributed to their arrival at the top of the all-points race.

IUPisces gives a synchronized swimming show annually. The group is self-supporting. It raised funds in 1981 by selling Easter candy. Participation in IUPisces is a learning experience because no prior experience is required to join. Clinics in synchronized swimming are held for newcomers prior to auditions.

The men's cross country team finished their season with only one loss. The team took first place in four of their meets: the Glassboro Invitational, California Invitational, IUP Invitational, and IUP Quadrangular Meet. Although most schools would have been happy to compile such a record, Coach Lou Sutton and the team were disappointed with the showing.

There were several individual accomplishments at the NCAA II Nationals. These included: Ed Phipps, a junior, placed 26th; Lou DiBridge, a senior, placed 34th; Eric Wilkins, a senior, placed 62nd; and Tim Abell, a junior, placed 75th. Senior Chris Eberly also contributed to the success of the men's cross country team.

Under the direction of Coach Ed Fry, the women's cross country team proved that they know how to run, not only on home turf at Meadow Lane Golf Course, but also on unfamiliar ground.

Though this was only their second season of varsity competition, the women harrisers placed high in many of their invitational meets and finished the year as state champs.

Senior Sheila Fleming was the number one runner for the team. She went on to Nationals and finished in the top third.

Indians' Autumn Tribe . . .

A great start and a strong finish sums up the 1980 football season for the IUP Indians. In its second year under head coach Owen Dougherty, IUP finished with a 6-4 slate; only a mid-season slump stopped them from being even more successful.

Senior quarterback Bob McFarland led the team and passed for almost 136 yards per game. McFarland completed 45 percent of his passes and threw for eight touchdowns.

Halfway through the season IUP running game suffered as injuries beset the offensive backs. Fullbacks Carl Robinson and George Kelly, and tailback Ken Moore, stepped in and picked up the slack. Robinson led all rushers with 362 yards, while Moore gained 296 yards.

Grabbing yardage from the air were two wide-outs, Roger Henderson and Stan Betters. Henderson latched on to 34 passes for 502 yards.

Kurt Bowers also finished up a glorious career at IUP. He placed third on IUP's all-time scoring list and first on the kicking list. Bowers piled up 64 straight extra-points and he also gained the field goal record with a career high of 23.

Leading the defensive team with 144 tackles was a junior linebacker Terry Carroll. Backing Carroll was senior defensive tackle, Joe Cugliari, with 86 stops.

Dougherty and his assistants managed to compile a 13-7 record in two seasons — the first time since 1974 that the Indians have come up with back-to-back winning seasons.

Coach Louise Eltz's tennis team finished their 1980 season with a 14-8 record despite being relatively inexperienced. The netters relied heavily on the talents of the underclassmen: three freshmen, three sophomores and one junior.

The highpoint of the regular season was the fine second place showing at the IUP Invitational. The squad also took eighth place at the PSAC Championships at Bloomsburg College and Lori Rupin shined as she won the state title playing fourth singles.

The 1980 soccer team, coached by Vince Celtnieks, completed the season with a 12-4 record.

Winning the District 18 title against Mercyhurst, the team ranked third in the second division of the Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware region. They also finished second in the West State College Conference.

Top scorer for the team was Frank Wolk, with 14 goals and six assists. His scoring talents qualified him for the NAIA All-American second team.

Sticking Around

Coach Kofie Montgomery's field hockey team finished the season with a 2-7-1 record. Inexperience and youthfulness were the two factors contributing to the disappointing record.

The Indians lost five of their first six games, not claiming a victory until their bout against Frostburg in mid-October. Their 3-0 victory over Slippery Rock was the team's best game of the season.

Next year should prove more promising. The team is losing only three seniors, and returnees Tracy Snyder, Donna Lutz, and Donna Long will make up a strong core.

Braves' Court Rules . . .

There was no recess in this Indiana court; the Tribe always kept fighting its case, ending the season with a verdict of success. The team, under the coaching of Carl Davis, Tom Beck and Tony Bernaedi, finished with a 17-11 record. On their way to the NCAA Division III Championship, the Indians chances were dismissed by a 72-63 loss to Bloomsburg.

Nevertheless, the Tribe can be proud of its season performance, for they faced some very stiff competition. The Indians met three Division I teams: Pitt, Duquesne, and Nicholls State of Louisiana. They also met the Division III team of Wittenberg, which was ranked number one in the nation in their division, and a number of other highly ranked teams.

Not only did the team receive recognition for their season accomplishments as a whole, but individual players did as well. Sam Scott, Mike Mitten and Jeff Brown all gained the conference Western Division and NAIA District 18 top five.

Mitten set a new IUP career field goal percentage mark of 54.2, and the team itself established a single season field goal record — connection on 49.5 percent of its attempts.

Overall the '80-'81 season was an overwhelming success; it gave the IUP community something to be proud of.

The golf team finished their best season ever when they brought home sixth place from the NCAA Division II Tournament in Hartford, Connecticut. Coach Sloniger regarded sixth place as quite an improvement over last year's ranking of 12th.

Brothers Kent and Kirk Stauffer contributed immensely to the team's efforts. Both were NCAA and NAIA All-Americans. Kent, a senior, was a NCAA All-American for four years and an NAIA All-American for three years.

Kirk, a sophomore who seems to be following in his brother's footsteps, became an NAIA All-American when he tied for 11th place in the NAIA Tournament.

Sprinting to the Top

First year coach Robert Raemore chalked up another winning season for the 1980-81 IUP track and field team.

Two seniors, Lou DiBridge and Chris Eberly, contributed greatly to the teams success. DiBridge set a new meet record and qualified for Nationals with a first place 9:07.4 clocking in the 3000 meter steeplechase. Eberly established both new meet and IUP records and qualified for Nationals in the 10,000 meter run with a winning time of 30:09.

The NAIA District 18 Meet was held at IUP on April 24-25, 1981. The Big Indians captured their third consecutive District 18 title on their home ground. That same weekend, five men were sent to test their skills in Philadelphia at the Penn Relays instead of competing in the District 18 Meet. The four-man relay team, consisting of senior Pat Simonson, junior Mark Razanauskas, and sophomores Bob Bell and John Brant, brought home fifth place honors in the Pennsylvania College division with a 3:26.8 time in the 1600 meter relay.

The women's track team, under the direction of Coach Ed Fry, set an overwhelming precedent during their '81 season. IUP hosted the AIAW Division II Women's Track and Field National Championship Meet at George P. Miller Stadium on May 14, 15 and 16, 1981. This meet represented two firsts, the initial time the AIAW conducted an exclusive Division II event, and the first time that IUP was the site for Nationals competition.

Six individuals from IUP qualified to compete in the Nationals. Peggy Ruffennach, Deana Macreno, Mercedes O'Connor, and Dana DiCicco qualified for the 3200 meter relay team. This four-woman team captured first place in the Pennsylvania Conference this year with a clocking of 9:27.4, a new conference record by 22 seconds. Barb Stauffer and Sheila Fleming also qualified for Nationals in the 3000 meter run.

At the Pennsylvania Conference, Ruffennach captured first place and set a new conference record in the 400 meter hurdles with a time of :63.8. Stauffer and Debbie Amrhein placed third in the 300 meter run (10:21.4) and 10,000 meter run (39.45), respectively.

Serving It Up

For the second season in a row, the IUP men's tennis record slipped a notch. Coach Vince Celtnieks helped guide the team to a 6-2 mark in '79, then last spring IUP finished 5-4, which was followed by a slight drop to 4-4 during the '81 season.

However, with all nine members due to return in '82, seven of which are lettermen, Celtnieks is confident the team will improve this year's showing.

Sophomore Tony Cinelli was a major asset to the team. Already a two-year letter-winner, Cinelli recorded an 8-4 slate in singles play along with an 8-3 mark in doubles competition, both these marks including district and conference tournaments.

Sassy Sluggers

In only its third year of existence as a varsity sport, the IUP women's softball team posted its best record ever with ten wins against only three losses.

First year coach Vickie Barnot concluded that a combination of strong defense and pitching led IUP to its successful season. Offensively, Barnot's sluggers improved immensely over last season with an overall .272 average.

Carol Hoover, a junior from Windber, was a major contributor to the team's success. Many coaches and umpires believe she may be the best pitcher in the state. She sported a 5-1 pitching record and a .263 batting average.

Barnot will only lose one player next year. With a team full of young, experienced players, she has hopes to capture the Pennsylvania Conference title during the '82 season.

Surplus of Spirit

The 1980-81 varsity cheerleaders urged the Big Indians on to many victories. With their unwavering enthusiasm, they endeavored to keep the fans cheering and the players straining until the last seconds of every game.

The start of the season brought a new addition to the squad. Male cheerleaders! Needless to say, many of the female fans were pleased. Indeed, the guys added a whole new dimension to the football and basketball games.

The cheerleading squad definitely improved upon the spirits of the fans at IUP and helped in representing the pride which we have strived to show here at our alma mater. Hopefully, we will never forget that we are IUP Proud!

Look Ma, . . .

It all climaxed on Saturday, May 23, 1981. Four years of college came to an end as the Class of 1981 gathered en masse at Miller Stadium. It was a culmination of four years of dorms, mixers, eight o'clocks, TGIF's, English II papers (and English II professors), Wolfendales, long lines, and all-nighters.

Family and friends helped us to remember past experiences on this special day; they shared our laughter and our tears. They joined us in saying, "WE DID IT!"

We Did It! . . .

. We Grad-gee-ated!
